

Comply with NEC 2023

MEPSPD1 - Residential Surge Protective Devices

To help you comply with NEC 2023 code art.230.67 surge protection requirements for new home construction or renovation, Midwest Electric Products offers a full line of reliable Surge Protective Devices (SPDs).

Midwest Electric offers Type 1 SPDs designed for installation with load centers of any brand used in service entrance or sub-panel locations. Our surge protective devices provide reliable protection for sensitive electronics and appliances connected within the entire home. Our offering includes:

Product details

- Type 1 – permanently connected
- Externally mounted
- 36kA per phase surge protection
- 120/240V & 120/208 V AC
- 200kA SCCR
- 10kA Nominal discharge
- UL 1449 listed
- 3-year, $25,000 connected equipment warranty

Why choose Midwest SPDs?

Protect the entire home

Three-years connected equipment warranty for up to $25K

Easy and quick installations

Code compliance NEC 2023 Art.230.67

© Copyright 2023.
All rights reserved.
Specifications subject to change without notice.
ID: 1TQC233200E0004
Sept.28, 2023.

